ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The authors would like to thank the associated partners, namely the European Builders Confederation (EBC), the European Construction Industry Federation (FIEC), the European Federation of Building and Woodworkers (EFBWW), the Flemish Federation of Construction SMEs (Bouwunie), the regional Italian Association of Enterprises in Vicenza (Confindustria Vicenza), the Slovak Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SOPK), the Confederation of Trade Unions of the Slovak Republic (KOZ SR), the Slovak National Labour Inspectorate (NLI RS), and the Employment Service of Slovenia (ESS) for their support in the implementation of the research for the INFO-POW project.

We would like to thank all the experts from the national institutions, social partners, and private actors for accepting our request to share their knowledge and experience in the provision of information on the posting of workers and for their support with the distribution of the survey to the targeted audiences in Austria, Belgium, Italy, Slovakia, and Slovenia. For the Austrian study, our gratitude goes to the experts at the Federal Ministry of Labour and Economy, the Federal Ministry of Finance, the Austrian Federal Chamber of Commerce and the regional Chambers of Commerce of Carinthia and Tyrol, the Construction Workers' Annual Leave and Severance Pay Fund (BUAK), the Austrian Health Insurance Fund, the Federation of Social Insurances, and a private law company. For the Belgian study, we thank Embuild and Bouwunie for sending the online survey to their members and the interviewees from Bouwunie, ABVV, ACV, NSSO, and a payroll consultancy. For the Italian study, our gratitude goes to the representatives of the Italian Association of Construction Companies (ANCE), Confindustria Vicenza, the National Bilateral Construction Industry Board (CNCE), the Friuli Venezia Giulia Region, and a financial and labour consultancy. For the Slovakian study, we are grateful to the interview respondents, participants in the online stakeholder consultation workshop, and supporters of the dissemination of the pilot online survey: job portal Profesia.sk, the National Labour Inspectorate, Slovenský živnostenský zväz (Slovak Craft Industry Federation), Zväz stavebných podnikateľov Slovenska (Association of Construction Entrepreneurs of Slovakia), and the Central European Labour Studies Institute. For the Slovenian study, our gratitude goes to the Ministry of Labour, Family, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities of Slovenia, the Employment Service of Slovenia, Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Štajerska, the Health Insurance Institute of Slovenia, and the Chamber of Craft and Small Business of Slovenia.

In addition, we would like to thank the participants in the online stakeholder workshop held on 19 January 2023 for their feedback on the mapping exercise and survey manuscript and the participants in the final upscaling event that was held on 17 January 2024 in the premises of the European Labour Authority in Bratislava, Slovakia. We also thank Yo Gazia (KU Leuven) for setting up the survey online and distributing it to the Orbis enlisted construction company contacts. Thank you also to the national teams of the INFO-POW consortium (European Centre for Social Welfare Policy and Research, HIVA – Research Institute for Work and Society, KU Leuven, Ca' Foscari University of Venice, CSPV Slovak Academy of Sciences, the Research Centre of the Slovenian Academy of Arts and Sciences) for managing the translation of the survey to national languages and for its distribution at the national level.

We are particularly grateful to the respondents who took the time to answer the survey, thus giving us a window into their companies' practices, challenges, and needs and sharing their experience-based recommendations.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Rossana Cillo is a research fellow at the University of Venice and a PhD candidate at the Université Libre de Bruxelles. Her research interests are migrant work, the unionisation of migrant workers, and the posting of workers. Her recent publications include “Mandatory mobility? The case of immigrant posted workers sent from Italy to Belgium in the construction sector”, International Migration, 2021 and Posted Workers, Edizioni Ca’ Foscari, 2022, co-edited with Fabio Perocco.

ANNEX 1: INTERVIEW PROTOCOL

Introductory protocol

Welcome: Thank you for agreeing to do this interview. My name is [XY], and I'll be talking with you today.

Inform about the research and explain purpose of the interview: Our research project on how transnational posting undertakings and user undertakings find and use information in their interaction with national institutions and how that affects their overall performance in terms of the correct application of the posting rules and the protection of labour and social standards. The study focuses on the specific case of the construction sector as the main sector where posting occurs, and where both larger companies and SMEs as well as self-employed are active.

The purpose of this interview today is to learn more about your experiences with and recommendations related to access and use of publicly available information for posting construction companies and user undertakings. The interview will last about 45-60 minutes.

Obtain informed consent:

[Ask interviewee to read and sign the informed consent form] Participation in this interview is voluntary and everything you tell us will be confidential. We won't connect your name with anything you say. Do you have any questions regarding the consent form?

To facilitate our notetaking, we would like to audio tape our conversations today. For your information, only researchers on the project will have access to the tapes. The information provided will be used only for the purposes of the study and the related research products that will be derived from it. Is it OK if I audio tape this interview today?

If yes: Thank you! Please let me know if at any point you want me to turn off the recorder or keep something you said off the record. You can stop the interview at any time for any reason.

If no: Thank you for letting me know. I will only take notes of our conversation.

[FOR TELEPHONE/TELECONFERENCE: Participant will be sent an informed consent form before the interview. At start of interview, ask if participant has read the consent form and if she/he has any questions about the consent form and if he or she agrees to be interviewed and audiotaped]

Before we start the interview, do you have any questions? [Discuss questions] If any questions (or other questions) arise at any point during this interview you can feel free to ask them at any time. Let me know if during the interview there are any questions that you would rather not answer. Please remember that we want to know what you think and that there are no right or wrong answers.

Introduction/Background

I'd like to begin by asking you some questions about your current job.

Probe: What is your position at [institution/organization]? What are your major responsibilities in your current position? How long have you been with [institution/organization]?

Can you tell me a bit about your work and experience as it relates to the posting of workers?

Probe: particularly for aspects that relate to information dissemination for posting/user undertakings.

Now, let's talk about your organisation.

What is your organisation's experience with engaging posting/user undertakings (or with the topic of posting of workers in general)?

- What prompted your organisation to get involved in this issue?
- Specifically, what activities have you undertaken?

Information provided to posting/user undertakings: content, tools, sources, intra-institutional exchange, dissemination

1 What information have you created and/or delivered?

1.1 What types of content do (did) you disseminate?

- Probes: working time, OSH, minimum wages and CBA, registration for social insurance and contributions, work permits, taxation, over time and other additional wage supplements, leave and holidays, facilitating information targeted at companies, sanctions and enforcement in case of non-compliance, redress, appeal and compensation.

1.2 What tools or resources have you used?

- Probes: online channels (webpages, online workshops, tutorial, videos), offline tools (booklets, brochures, regular consultation hours)

1.3 What are your sources for the information about posting provided by your organization? Or where did you go to look for information?

1.4 Do you exchange with other national or EU institutions/organizations on posting information? (in what form/frequency, with whom)

1.5 At what frequency do you update/provide/deliver information on the topic?

2 How do (did) you disseminate information to posting/user undertakings?

2.1 What channel(s) or mode of delivering information do (did) you use? (Online and/or offline channels e.g. website, flyers, brochures, guides, trainings, workshops, videos etc.)

2.2 How do (did) you engage posting/user undertakings? Do you provide any support with interpreting/decoding the provided information?

- Probe: Is there a contact email or contact number in case of questions? Do you have office hours? Do you provide content with answers to Frequently Asked Questions?

Monitoring and enforcement of the provision of information

3 What has been the reaction to your activities/efforts?

3.1 Do you map how well a particular information source/channel is able to reach the respective target group (e.g. web page view counts, number of participants at an event)?

4 How do you ensure that your information reaches respective employers? Do you take any specific measures? Which ones? Do they work?

4.1 Do (did) this differ for different types of posting employers/user undertakings?

4.2 If so, what are the different types, and how do their information needs differ?

5 Was there anything you did that you thought worked well?

5.1 Among the topics that you have addressed or considered addressing, what types/aspects of information seem to resonate most with posting employers/user undertakings?

5.2 What aspects resonate least?

5.3 What do you think are the priority topics and content areas for posting/user undertakings?

- With what topics do they need the most assistance?

- Where can information affect the most change?

6 What, if anything, would you do differently?

Gaps and Challenges in the provision of information

7 In your view, what are the pertaining information gaps that posting companies continue to face? What is the reason for these information gaps?

7.1 What opportunities for information dissemination/engagement have not traditionally been used?

7.2 Are there target audiences that have been ignored?

7.3 Are there any differences on information gaps between posting undertakings and user undertakings?

8 What barriers/challenges would you say posting/user undertakings face when accessing information on the posting of workers?

- Probe: this could in more general terms, or the information provided by the specific institution/organization.

9 What challenges are there to providing information to posting/user undertaking?

- Probe: this could in general, or about the specific institution/organization.

Best practices and recommendations

10 What are the best ways to inform/engage posting/user undertakings?

10.1 Based on your knowledge/experience which is the organization that currently best delivers information on posting? What best practices do they have?

10.3.1 What facilitates those best practices?

10.3.2 What are some challenges to those best practices?

10.1 What are the best way(s) to disseminate information?

- Probe: perhaps they can elaborate on what they consider the best way.
- Probe: perhaps they can mention any best practices in making information available and accessible for posting and user undertakings?

10.1.1 How feasible is this/are these?

10.1.2 What assistance would be needed to implement such tools and resources? What are the best ways to sustain those efforts?

11 Can you recommend any particular print documents or Web resources that your or other institutions/organizations have produced that we should review?

Closing the interview

12 What is the most important message that you want us to take away from this interview?

12.1 Is there anything else that you would like to add about any of the topics that we've discussed or other areas that we didn't discuss but you think are important?

12.2 If you know of any research, tools, or resources that may be useful to include please send them to me.

Thank you for your time and participation in this interview. The information that you provided to us will be very helpful in this project.
